Would Most Student Debt Relief Help Rich Liberals with Post-Graduate Degrees in Woke Studies?

A typical conservative argument against student debt relief goes like this.

> People with postgraduate degrees in the fine arts are not working class. 37% of student loan debt is held by 7% of borrowers, pretty much all of whom have postgraduate degrees. This is also one of the most left-wing demographics in the country.

But is this true?

> This is a typical misleading conservative argument. It focuses on debt rather than borrowers to deliberately obscure the fact that the overwhelming majority of borrowers have less than $50,000 In student loan debt and are not graduate students or wealthy professionals. Student loan debt forgiveness would leave most of those graduate students in debt, but would erase the debt burden for lower income White Millennials with student loans.

In my estimation, the liberal argument against student debt relief is more boomer resentment.

> How is White racial advocacy set back in any way by some Libtard getting her master's degree COMPED? If the 12-24 million Americans with "Alt right beliefs" get debt relief too that's one less lever they can use to suppress us. For Whites to have a fighting chance of gaining racial political power in this country, we need to ensure that you can't have your life destroyed for posting an "it's ok to be White" flyer. The largest obstacle to that is the Capitalist debt slavery system. Right now, getting Redpilled when your 18, 19, or 20 doesn't do anything for anyone if you have to slave away at Shekelblatt Inc. to pay off your debt, and are limited to posting as Anon Grouper. Also regarding Libtards, I'd be willing to bet the most hostile and vicious gentile Libtards are the most financially precarious and dependent on the System, like grad students or $30k per year social workers/NGO staffers. If there's less economic pressure for them to attack us or not start families, we're better off too.

In short, even if all student debt relief helped liberals, it would still make sense as most student debt is held by the Department of Education. In other words, young people are in debt slavery for "buying" something government should be providing anyway.
